

2023-2024 Dependency Override

Instructions:

A student who does not meet the federal criteria for independent status on the 2023-2024 Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) may submit this form (with supporting documentation) for review and determination of existing unusual circumstances. The Higher Education Act allows a Financial Aid Administrator to make dependency overrides on a case-by-case basis for students with unusual circumstances.

Please Note: Parent(s) refusal/inability to contribute to your education, parents not claiming you on their tax return, and/or you supporting yourself are not considered extenuating circumstances. Approvable unusual circumstances would include but are not limited to death of parents, an abusive family environment or abandonment by parents.

Submission: Completed forms can be uploaded to www.go.iu.edu/fasecure. You will receive an e-mail notification in your university email account of the decision within ten business days.

What documentation do I need?

- Personal Statement by Student See next page.
- Personal Statement by a Professional Third Party Attach a typed statement signed and dated from a third party (e.g. teacher, member of clergy, or social worker) summarizing your unusual circumstances and knowledge concerning your relationship with your parents.
- Additional Supporting Documentation (Optional) Attach copies of any relevant supporting documentation (e.g. court documents, legal documents, or police report).
- 2023-2024 FAFSA on the Web (<https://fafsa.gov>) If you have not yet submitted the 2023-2024 FAFSA, complete and submit it before April 15, 2023, for maximum consideration for financial aid from all sources.
